THE TEXAS CONSTRUCTION ANTI-INDEMNITY ACT: THE NEW RISK MANAGEMENT LANDSCAPE

SPEAKER: B. LEE WERTZ, JR., SHAREHOLDER, MUNSCH HARDT KOPF & HARR, PC

Please join us for the Houston Chapter's November luncheon meeting. This month we are featuring Lee Wertz, Shareholder in the Business Litigation section of Munsch Hardt Kopf & Harr, PC, who is presenting "The Texas Construction Anti-Indemnity Act: The New Risk Management Landscape".

This session will explore the nature and impact of the Texas Construction Anti-Indemnity Act. The program will address key provisions of the Act; including definitions, scope, and practical implications for construction agreements. Attendees will gain insight as to the policy provisions underlying the Act, its effect on managing risk, and practical implications for reviewing and evaluating risk management provisions in construction agreements and for crafting a risk management strategy.

Lee is a trial lawyer with broad experience ranging from catastrophic personal injury cases to complex commercial litigation from inception through jury verdict. Lee represents plaintiffs and defendants in all aspects of complex and sophisticated commercial and general civil litigation and arbitrations, focusing on the transportation, construction, oil and gas, insurance and waste industries. These cases involve insurance coverage, breach of contract, fraud, indemnity, trade secrets, non-compete agreements, DTPA and UCC, as well as defense of serious injury and wrongful death claims.

Lee was awarded an "AV Preeminent" rating signifying the highest accolade an attorney can receive for legal ability and adherence to professional standards of conduct, ethics, reliability and diligence. The Martindale Hubbell® Peer Review Ratings enable members of the legal community to benefit from the candid and objective peer-to-peer feedback of other lawyers.

Lee is a frequent speaker and author on litigation and insurance issues.

This session has been approved by the Texas Department of Insurance for 1 hour of CE credit.

Please RSVP by Friday, November 13th . We look forward to seeing you.
